HOSTED TEAM BUILDING SESSIONS

There's nowhere else that hosts a team building session using games like we do. With a history of running professional esports events, we can arrange a fun, engaging and accessible tournament that will have everyone in your work group fully hyped. Our hosts can arrange a Street Fighter or Mario Kart tournament on the big screen complete with competition bracket on display and commentator for maximum atmosphere.

Alternatively try 'Two Rooms and a Boom' a purely social game (no screens) where one team must plant a bomber in the presidents room and the other must protect the president. It's a hosted session that involves doses of co-operation, scheming, lying and hostage trading. Team building cost is $75/ hour.

| GAME | CAPACITY | TIMING | INCLUSIONS |
|-----------------------------|--------------|---------------------|---|
| STREET FIGHTER | 16-40 | 1 - 2 hours | Our host will guide you're group through a competitive Street Fighter tournament broadcast on our large projector screen. You'll have live hype commentary and lots to cheer about. Suitable for all skill/experience levels. |
| MARIO KART | 16-60 | 1 - 2 hours | Even if you've never played Mario Kart before—this is a lot of fun. 4 players race at a time allowing everyone in a large group to get involved. Tournament bracket management and shoutcasting included. |
| TWO ROOMS AND A BOOM | 16-40 | 45 - 60 mins | No screens involved here. '2 Rooms' a game that requires players to talk to everyone and is perfect for breaking the ice. Easily learned- with healthy doses of tension and laughter. You'll be surprised how good this game is. Our host will walk your group through all the way. |
| WERE-WOLF | 12-30 | 30 - 60 mins | Some of the innocent looking villagers are actually werewolves—but which ones? This (no screens) social deception game is one of the most popular of its type. The hosted session will get everyone talking, colluding and finger pointing. |
